On Saturday 4th May 2019 the West Australian Endurance Riders Association held the annual Yarloop Endurance Ride at Log Fence Pony Club.

The beautiful weather and some of the best country side WA has to offer didn't disappoint and the killer hill on the Brett's Property was all made worth it when riders saw the view from the top.

The Yarloop Event offered 10km, 20km, 40km, 60km and 80 km rides so catered for newcomers to the sport and seasoned riders and horses. There were 88 competitors entered in the event.

The great facilities of Log Fence Pony Club appeal to many people particularly those having a go at endurance for the first time as there are plenty of roomy horse yards.

All ages are able to participate in endurance riding and some of our local equestrians were out on the track too, Bailey Jenkins was riding her pony Ocker and was accompanied by Gypsie Ashboth riding Rocko in their very first endurance ride.

This event was organised by Ali Healy of Hamel and is entirely reliant on volunteers so don't hesitate to put your hand up next year to help, as it is a fun day for all and there is no need to be an equestrian enthusiast to help out.

Thank you to WAERA, Ali Healy, Volunteers and land owners that make this event possible in Yarloop every year.
